A Cleveland Editor among the Fortune Tellers.

The local of the Cleveland Plaindealer has been on a visit to some travelling fortune tellers now in that city, and furnishes the following as the result:

We urbanely informed the lady with the "Caul oh her face," that we had called to have our fortune told, and she said "hand out your money." This preliminary being settled, Madame B. (who is a tall, sharp eyed, dark featured and angular woman, dressed in painfully positive colors, and heavily loaded with gold chain and mammoth jewelry of various kinds) said Jubiter indicated powerfully that we were a slim constitution, which came down to us on our father's side. Wherein our constitution was not slim, so it came down to us from our mother's side. "Is this so?" and we said it was. "Yes" continued the witch, "I know'd t'was. You can't deceive Jubiter, me, nor any other planick.— You may swim over Hell's Point same as Leander did but you can't deceive the planicks. Give me yer hand? Times ain't so easy as they has been. So, so—but 'tis temp'ry. T'wont last long. Times will be easy soon. You may be trampled on to once or twict, but you'll rekiver. You have talenk me child. You can make a Congresser if you likes to be. [We said we would be excused if it was all the same to her.] You kin be a lawyer. [We thanked her, but said we would rather retain our present good moral character.] You kin be a soldier. You have courage enough to go to the Hostrian wars and kill the French. [We informed her that we had already murdered some "English."] You won't have much money till you are thirty-three years old. Then you'll have large sums; forty thousand dollars perhaps. Look out for it.— [We promised we would.] You have travelled some, and you will travel more, which will make your travels more extensiver then they have been. You will go to Californy by way of Pike's Pick. [Same route taken by Horace Greeley.] If nothing happens on to you, you won't meet with no accidents, and you will get through pleasant, which you otherwise will not do under all circumstances, however, which doth happen to all both great and small likewise to the rich as also the poor. Hearken to me. There has been deaths in your family, and there will be more. But reserve your constitution and you will live to be 70 years old. Me child ... hair will be black—black as the Raving's wing.— Likewise black will also be her eyes, and she'll be as different from which you are as night and day. Look out for the darkish man. He's your rival. Beware of the darkish man. [We promised that we'd introduce a funeral the moment we encountered him.] Me child, there is more sunshine than clouds for ye, and send all yer friends up here.

A word before you goes. Expose not yourself. Your eyes is saller which is on account of bile on your systim. Some don't have bile on their systim which their eyes are not saller. This bile ascends down to you from many generation, which is in their graves and peace to their ashes.

MADAME CROMPTON.

We proceeded directly to Madame Crompton, the other fortune teller. She has rooms in the Farmer's Hotel. She was driving an extensive business, and we were forced to wait half an hour or so for a chance to see her. Madame Crompton is of the English persuasion, and has evidently searched many long years for her "H." She is small in stature, but considerably inclined to corpulency, and her red, round face is continually wreathed in smiles, reminding one of a new tin pan basking in the noonday sun.

She took a greasy pack of common playing cards, and requested us to "cut them in three," which we did. She spread them out on the table before her and said: "Sir, to you which I speaks: You have been terrible crossed in love and you 'art 'as been much panged. But you will get all over it, and marry a light complected gal with rayther reddish hair. Before some time you'll have a legarcy fall down to you, mostly in solick gold. There may be a lawsuit about it, and you may be subprisoned as a witness, but you'll git it—mostly in solick gold, which you will keep in chists, and you must look out for them. [We said we would keep a skinned optic on "them chists."] You 'as an enemy, and he's a lightish man. He wants to defraud you of your 'onesty. He is tellink lies about you now, in the 'opes of crushin' yourself [A weak invention of the "opposition."] You never did nothin' bad! Your 'art is right. You 'ave a great taste for hosses and like to stay with 'em: Mister to you so I sez. Gard against the lightish man and all will be well." The supernatural being then took an oval-shaped chunk of glass (which she called a stone) and requested us to hang on to it. She looked into it and said: "If you're not keerful when you git your money you'll lose it, but which otherwise you will not, and fifty cents is as cheap as I kin afford to tell anybody's fortune and no great shakes made then as the Lord in Heving knows."

CHOLERA INFANTUM.—The Boston Medical and Surgical Journal states that this disease is unusually severe the present season. The disease is very prevalent and very fatal in Providence. Great pains should be taken to prevent children from being exposed to cold and damp without sufficient clothing, especially at night. The custom of dressing little girls in hoops, no doubt renders many children liable to the danger of cholera infantum, by exposing the lower extremities. Twenty-one children died in Boston last week of this disease. This is about double the usual number at this time of the year.—Boston Herald.

THE HYDRAULIC CRANE.—Sir William G. Armstrong, the inventor of the rifled cannon, has also invented a machine called the hydraulic crane, which to judge from the description is one of the most valuable of labor-saving inventions. It is thus described by one who saw it in operation:—The locomotive steam engine has been called the iron horse. The hydraulic crane ought to be called the iron elephant. A huge iron crane stands upon the quay at Newcastle, within a few feet of the edge. A very thick chain hanging over the water may be taken to represent the elephant's trunk. At the foot of the crane is a small horizontal dial with two fingers. A man or a boy turns one of the fingers to the right—the chain descends into the hold of a ship lying at anchor beneath. Another touch, the chain is still. Move one of the fingers to the left, and you see rising from the ship's hold a burden of many tons weight, which the chain raises from the ship above the level of the quay. Another touch of the finger, and the crane comes round, and chain and heavy load describe part of a circle, until the load is over its destined resting place. Touch the finger again: all is stationary. Another slight movement, and the load is deposited. A child can direct and control the movements. Every movement of the crane follows the movements on the dial with unerring precision. If an error occurs, it is due to the head that directs, not to the power that works. That power is a drop of water. You hear no noise, except of the chain running down. There is no haste, no extra effort, no uncertainty. All is impossibility and smoothness—a smoothness which begets complacency in the looker-on. The iron elephant would lift a p n or a baby more safely and delicately than cou d a lady. In the London docks you may see him lift a bullock or a tiger, or a bundle of them—or a few tons of iron or wood, or of any other thing, and apparently with the same ease with which he would lift a baby.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Republicans of Penobscot County are hereby notified to meet in Convention, on THURSDAY, August 18th, at 10 o'clock A. M., in the City Hall, Bangor, for the purpose of nominating candidates for County Treasurer, County Commissioner, and Senators, to be supported at the ensuing election.

The basis established in 1856 is as follows:—Each Town and Plantation is entitled to one delegate, to one additional delegate for every 25 Republican votes, up to 100, thrown for Governor last year; above 100, one additional delegate for every 50 such votes up to 500; above 500, one additional delegate for every 100 votes.

Time to Organize.

We would urge upon the friends of the Republican cause, and especially upon the town and county committees, the importance of a prompt organization preparatory to the State election. Where the proper measures have not already been taken, A MOVEMENT SHOULD BE MADE AT ONCE, to secure a full vote of the party. It will not answer to trust to our own strength, and the apparent quietude of the opposition. We warn the friends of freedom that THE ENEMY IS SECRETLY AT WORK—hoping to surprise the Republicans, and thus gain a partial or even a general victory in the State. They encourage themselves with the idea that one third or one half of the Republicans will not deem it necessary to vote this year,—and so by a secret organization, and a sudden rush upon election day, they think they may obtain an advantage, and then be able to raise a howl of demoniac triumph at the "overthrow of Black Republicanism."

Are the Republicans of Maine willing that the pro-slavery party should triumph through their apathy. Do the people of Maine wish to make another trial of sham democracy in their State government? Have they forgotten the character of bunkerism when in power—the selfishness, corruption and venality of the men who will grasp the offices and the patronage of the State, if the old political dynasty is restored? Do the people want such a restoration? If not—if they do not wish to be again disgraced by the rule of State hunkerism and national pro-slavery—let them not despise the enemy? Let them prepare in season for the election, and then go the polls in full strength.

The Congressional Elections in the South.

The August elections in the South, show that the breath of life has been breathed with an effective vitality upon the old dry bones of the opposition to democratic misrule, and that the party which has for the last ten years crushed beneath its feet the old whig and the new American parties is fast losing its political power. The Buchanan party has lost ground in every Southern State in which an election has recently been held. The administration has had its back broken in its own stronghold. The opposition have gained and the administration have lost one member of Congress in Virginia, two in Kentucky, three at least, and perhaps four in Tennessee, and two in North Carolina. These results conclusively settle the character of the next House of Representatives.

On the whole, we have a right to feel gratified with the Congressional elections in the South.—Although the Opposition members are not with the Republicans in the organization of the House yet they are deadly hostile to the present administration, and will do all that honorable men can do to rescue the nation from the party which now holds it in possession.—Boston Atlas.

THE NEXT EXPEDITION OF THE FRENCH ARMY.—A special correspondent, writing from Brescia on the 22d, says:—"The genii French colonels are not extinct yet." Several superior officers told me that their next expedition will be to Lombard street, London, instead of Lombardy, Italy." And the Paris correspondent of the Advertiser writes:—

One of the best informed correspondents of the French papers writes to-day from Italy, that amongst general officers, the opinion prevails that the war which has terminated is but the prologue to another. This impression tallies with that expressed by a French general officer to an Italian at Milan the other day—"Now we have done with Lombardy, we hope that the Emperor will lead us to Lombard street. "Nor do these sentiments differ from those attributed to Napoleon the III:—"Do not believe for a moment that I have forgotten or forgiven the combinations devised by the English against my uncle. The day may not be far distant when I shall be able to prove it to you." My informant was an ex-minister of the Prince Napoleon during the republic; and unless his Majesty's sentiments have changed, the Old Lady of Threadneedle street, and her neighbor of Lombard street must look to their strong boxes.

The last attempt made by the Southern press to save the Union for the benefit of the democracy consists in a denunciation of the negro song known as "Nelly Gray." It is stigmatized as an "abolition song."

New Publications.

WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY. Unabridged. Pictorial edition. G. & C. Merriam, Springfield, 1859.

The new edition of Webster's great work, just issued by the indefatigable publishers, is a noble production, both in regard to the merits of the work itself, and as a specimen of American mechanical art. As it brings us down to the present day in the progress of the language, and affords many new and valuable elucidations never before included in any work of the kind, a copy should be found in every library, and in every family. That there are other meritorious Dictionaries—works which are the result of great labor and learning, we are not disposed to deny,—but we have been accustomed to consider "Webster's Unabridged" as the Dictionary of the English language—the work which, if there is any "standard," has the best claims to that position. We say we have been accustomed to regard Webster as the best authority,—and we think that is the view of three fourths at least of all the teachers and writers of the English language. His great work was the result of a long life of study and research, and of the most indefatigable industry, which, joined to his great native talent as a linguist qualified him pre-eminently for a historian of the language. We regard Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, with the additional matter comprised in the present edition, to be the most comprehensive and erudite work extant,—and we say this without desiring to detract from the merits of any other work whatever. We simply say, that whenever we want the "standard," we take Webster.

The new matter in the present edition consists, among other things, of about ten thousand new words, with their definitions and derivations—comprising the additions which have been made to the language in common use, since the issue of the revised edition in 1847—wisely excluding the unimportant compounds which have been indefinitely multiplied. These new words are given separately from the main body of the work, in an Appendix—and this, although in some respects objectionable, has the advantage of showing to the student the progress which the language has made within the past twelve years.

The most beautiful and in many respects valuable feature of the new edition is the Pictorial Illustrated department—comprising over 1500 illustrations done in the very best style of wood engraving, by John Andrew, Esq., and the best executed engravings we have ever seen. These illustrations are placed together in the first part of the book—an arrangement which is much better than to scatter them through the work as in some other illustrated dictionaries,—because in this manner the publishers are enabled to give larger engravings and to print them in far better style. Then again, the illustrations are mainly grouped—a very great advantage to the student; that is, all the illustrations of the different parts of a building, under the head of "Architecture" are brought together, with the explanations, upon several consecutive pages by themselves. So of Ornithology, Natural History, Botany, Carpentry, Geology, Geometry, Heraldry, Mechanics, Music, Mythology, Races, Reptiles, Naval Architecture, Trees, &c., &c.—A Pictorial Department is thus formed, most interesting to the general reader, and valuable to the student in any department of science, philosophy or the mechanic arts. The engravings are large in size, compared with any illustrations of the kind in any other work, and are printed in the most perfect style. References are made in each illustration to the corresponding definition, to be found in the body of the book, and similar references are made in the body of the volume to such illustrations as are pertinent to the definition. Thus all inconvenience is avoided in the matter of referring backward and forward, and, at the same time, the objects illustrated are grouped naturally and most properly, in the order of families and species.

Next following this department is an extensive Table of Synonyms, by Professor Chauncey A. Goodrich—a feature of the work exceedingly useful to all writers of the language. As in the case of the pictorial illustrations, the synonyms are brought together in one department of the book—a much more convenient arrangement than that of scattering them through the volume. This department appears to be very accurate and complete—containing, it is said, a greater number of distinct articles than is given in any other similar work. Mr. Goodrich has been very particular that his synonyms should be purely synonyms, and not include words as such which have in reality wide differences of signification.

Another valuable addition is a table giving the orthography and pronunciation of more than eight thousand names of distinguished persons of modern times,—a truly original feature,—one for which every reader of the current news of the day, and every writer and public speaker will feel most grateful—for there is nothing more embarrassing than the inability, felt by almost every person, to give the proper pronunciation to names not in frequent and general use. Besides a table containing words and phrases of the Latin, of the French, of the Italian, and of the Spanish, rendered in to English, other valuable features might be mentioned, but we have not the space at our command to go more into detail.

The entire volume contains no less than 1750 ample quarto pages — constituting, as we have said, a most noble work, and one of which we, as Americans, may well feel proud. It is printed and bound in a handsome and very substantial manner—calculated to stand as much handling as anything of the kind can be made to stand. The publishers have in fact spared no pains to make it as thorough and reliable a work in its mechanical execution as it is in its literary and scientific character.

DAUGHTERS OF MALTA.—The editor of the Rockford (Illinois) Standard, who is a woman, says: "The daughters of Malta are becoming as distinguished, and seem to be quite as benevolent in their designs as the 'Sons of Malta.' Their object is said to be to relieve widowers, destitute bachelors, dandies, Hottentots, and orphan male children. By the time the Sons obtain the control of the Island of Cuba, the Daughters confidently expect to subjugate the Isle of Man.

LOCAL AND MAINE NEWS!

☞ In the Police Court yesterday, Amos B. Stearns, (who was tracked and arrested by officer Walker, as related in yesterday's paper), was arraigned on charge of obtaining money by false pretences. Pleading not guilty, the examination was postponed. The defendant is charged with selling for a valuable consideration, a note signed with a fictitious name—that of "Frank B. Boynton," and of giving another note as collateral, drawn in the name of a deceased person John Low.

State vs. Joseph Estabrook. For breaking and entering the store of Wm. K. Miller in the day time, and stealing bank bills and coin of the value of $11,20.

A WONDERFUL MAN WITHOUT ARMS. Mr. S. G. K. Nellis, the man who was born without arms, but who uses his toes with greater dexterity than most people can their fingers, will exhibit some of his surprising feets in this city early next week,—probably commencing on Monday evening at Concert Hall, (City Hall being engaged.) It is said that Mr. Nellis can use scissors as handily with his feet as a lady can with her fingers,—that he can load and discharge a pistol very rapidly—beat the drum—play the violin—shoot with the bow and arrow—and shave any gentleman clean without drawing a dime from his pocket.

EXCURSION OF THE SONS OF TEMPERANCE.—The fraternity of the Sons of Temperance of this vicinity, with their "Visitors" and friends are to have a grand excursion to-morrow (Wednesday,) as will be seen by special notice in another column. The members of the several Divisions of this city will proceed by the morning train to Pittsfield, and there meet, by arrangement, the members of Divisions from Waterville, West Waterville, Kendall's Mills, Clinton and Newport. At Pittsfield the company will enjoy a pic-nic entertainment, and have a general temperance celebration. The Bangor Cornet Band is engaged for the occasion.

FARM AT AUCTION.—This afternoon, at 3 o'clock. (See advertisement. Carriages will leave Ingraham's corner, Hammond Street, at half past two o'clock.

FIRE. The alarm of fire last evening at ten o'clock, was caused by the burning of an unoccupied house on Fourteenth street, a mile or more from the bridge. It was said to be owned by a man named O'Laughlin, and was a pretty good house. There is no doubt it was set on fire, and there is a report that a man was arrested on suspicion of being the incendiary. The engines arrived in season to have saved a part of the house, if there had been a sufficiency of water in the neighborhood.

☞ The alarm of fire yesterday was in consequence of the burning out of a chimney in the house of Mr. Quigley, on Grove Street.

THE LEWISTON BAGS. The "Lewiston Bagging Company," (as stated in a recent article in the Journal of that place,) commenced their business of making grain bags, or sacks, in 1858, and have continued to be very successful. They now run 75 looms, each making about 36 bags daily. This gives for the daily product about 2700 or 2800 bags, and for a year some 800,000 bags, valued at $180,000. About 150 hands are employed, and their monthly pay roll is $3,000. The bags are woven whole, by a loom of the most ingenious contrivance, which not only weaves the sides whole, but also the bottom, and cuts the bag off, open at the top, when it has been woven of sufficient length. The larger portion of these bags are sent to the West, and the demand for them varies with the state of the crops.

KENNEBEC NOMINATIONS. The following is the Kennebec Republican ticket complete:

Clerk of Courts—W. M. Stratton.

County Commissioner—Ezekiel Hubbard.

County Treasurer—Daniel Pike.

An excellent ticket in all respects.

THE MAINE C. M. A. EXHIBITION. The fourth of the Maine Charitable Mechanic Association's Exhibitions will be held in Portland, commencing on the 27th of September. Articles for exhibition will be received between the 10th and 24th of September, and contributions are requested from mechanics and manufacturers in the United States and the British Provinces. The board of Managers say in their circular:

"An additional and very important incentive in favor of this fair and exhibition being held in this city, and this year, is the strong probability of the Great Eastern making her trial trip to this port about the time of its opening. Should that very desirable event occur, it would bring to this city during the several weeks of her stay, thousands of strangers, who would take an interest in all matters of public importance, and in none more than in such an array of mechanical, and other ingenious articles and inventions as would be displayed on this occasion. The visitors to this city, at that time, will undoubtedly embrace men to whom mechanics and others should be proud to exhibit their best articles—such men as the scientific and mechanical departments of Europe and the United States place in their front ranks."

The Universalist Society at Biddeford, have invited Rev. Mr. Davenport, of Yarmouthport, Mass., to settle with them, and he has accepted.

THE LUMBER BUSINESS DOWN EAST. The Calais Advertiser says:

We took a stroll along the wharves on Tuesday evening last, and it appears to us there is more lumber of one kind and another piled on them than we ever saw before at this season of the year. And judging from the number of arrivals and departures of vessels since the river opened, there must have been an immense amount of lumber shipped up to this time. The act is lumber is manufactured so rapidly on this river, that it would require a fleet of upwards of a hundred arrivals a week to carry it off. As ... the ... cannot long hold up its head.

UNFORTUNATE. We learn that as Rev. A. Battles of this city, with his wife, was on his way to Gouldsboro, last week, his horse fell in a fit in the road below Ellsworth, at a considerable distance from any place where help could be obtained. After some delay and trouble, assistance was procured, and the horse was brought back to Ellsworth, where he died.

BURNING OF THE MASSACHUSETTS STATE REFORM SCHOOL. On Saturday morning last the State Reform School building at Westborough was set on fire by a vicious boy named Daniel Creadon, who was sentenced from Salem for larceny. He tore his bed in pieces and thrust the fragments into a small hole in his cell connecting with the flue leading it to the general ventilator. Setting fire to the combustibles thus placed, the flames were at once carried into a wooden air-chamber which run all around the top of the building, and as there were but one or two engines in the vicinity, the noble pile, 200 by 380 feet, was nearly destroyed, before sufficient aid was obtained from Westborough, Marlborough and other places. The loss is more than $100,000. Of the inmates 250 were carried to the new jail at Fitchburg. None of the inmates were injured.

A DESPERATE RUNAWAY. The Portland Advertiser relates the following:

On Saturday afternoon as two ladies from Freeport were coming down Cumberland street from Munjoy, in a wagon, the horse by some means became startled and started on the run. One of the party, Miss Emily Reed, was thrown out, and striking against a pile of boards, was severely injured in the face. On turning into Washington street, her sister, Mrs. Harriet Soule, was also thrown out and received serious injuries, the result of which is doubtful. She was entirely helpless, and from her peculiar situation, it was thought advisable that she should be conveyed as soon as possible to her home.

After Mrs. Soule was thrown out, the horse continued along Washington and turned into Congress street. Here the wagon came in contact with the chaise of Dr. Rugg, in which were Mrs. Rugg and her father. The chaise was overturned and completely wrecked. Mrs. Rugg was thrown some ten feet, and was, we learn, badly injured—it was feared seriously. Mr. Mason happily escaped with a slight injury. The affrighted horse continued his course down India street, where he ran into a team of oxen, starting them on the run. The reins and tackling of the runaway, having become entangled around his legs, threw him, and he was secured from further mischief.

THE GREAT FORGERY CASE AT SALT LAKE.—A letter from Camp Floyd, of July 9, gives the following account of the discovery of heavy forgeries, already referred to by telegraph.—

"A band was organized in Salt Lake City for the purpose of forging Quartermaster's checks upon the Sub-Treasurers of New York and St. Louis. General Johnson had received an intimation of what was going on, and for more than a week had the parties watched. Yesterday a man named Brewer, a Mormon, came down from the city to effect the first sale; he sold one check for $367 to a man who had been instructed to purchase them if offered for sale. A warrant for an arrest was immediately issued, the man was taken while in bed, and, on search being made, the plate for striking checks on St. Louis, together with a number of blank checks were found.

The intention was to send Brewer over to California with half a million dollars in checks, there to put them in circulation.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, in another column, and assure them they can find no better remedy for coughs, colds, asthma, bronchial affections, or any disease of the throat or lungs.

In August, 1858, an estimable friend of ours returned from a visit in the country much emaciated and laboring under a severe cough, which had made such rapid inroads upon her constitution that we felt something must be done at once, or she would become a victim of consumption. Having known the beneficial results which have occurred from the use of Wistar's Balsam, we made purchase of some for her, and are happy to say that before she had taken the contents of one bottle her cough had entirely left her, and she is now in the enjoyment of excellent health.—Olive Branch June 25, 1859.

BANGOR DAILY WHIG AND COURIER.

TELEGRAPHIC

TO THE

Daily Whig & Courier.

NEW YORK, 15th.

Dr. Nott, president of Union College, has resigned.

Steamer Teutonia, sailed this afternoon for Hamburg, with 118 passengers.

The steamer City of Baltimore arrived at this port at quarter to six this evening. She left Liverpool on the 3d, and Queenstown on the 4th inst., and a brief summary of her news has been printed from Cape Race.

The following is the latest intelligence telegraphed from London to Queenstown:

London, 4th.—The Paris Patrie of last evening says, it is asserted that ships of the division Fourichon, the armament of which has just been completed, at present are to be placed in a pied de commission. It is also reported that the same order applies to four frigates and four vessels of the squadron of Admiral Buet Villaumez. The squadron of the Adriatic had entered Toulon.

Turin, Wednesday.—Count Arese has left here for Paris.

Marseilles, 3d.—French troops are constantly arriving in our port from Italy. Marshal Canrobert is expected here shortly.

The ambassador of Prussia has disembarked.

Advices received from Constantinople state that the Sultan—now on his journey through the Provinces—will proceed as far as Gracchus.

Letters received announce that the Czar is about to undertake a journey to the Presse d'Orient. His majesty will be joined by Prince de Gorman.

Turin, 2d. To-day the funeral rites of the French and Sardinian soldiers who have fallen for the cause of Italy were performed.

Paris, 3d. The army continues its passage through Turin for Paris and is everywhere greeted with acclamations.

Bologna, 2d. The Sardinian Commissioners have committed their authority to the minister, Cl. Cramatio, who has convoked the national assembly.

The marquis d'Azeglio has issued a proclamation recommending the people to remain tranquil, and promising in the name of Victor Emanuel to employ every possible means to obtain the concurrence of the European government for accomplishing their just and reasonable wishes. Perfect order prevails.

The following Australian gold ships have sailed for England since the last mail: Avon, with 25,880 ounces of gold; Southampton, with 26,321 ounces; Eagle, with 31,636 ounces, and the Beechworth, with 19,988 ounces.

The Times has received a dispatch dated Melbourne, June 18, which says the Chinese are organizing a passive resistance to the four pound resident tax.

The Bank of Victoria is about to establish a branch in London, and will send the Manager home for that purpose.

WORCESTER, 15th.

The boy Crehan, who was suspected of burning the State Reform School buildings, has made a full confession of the circumstances this P. M., to J. S. Brown, one of the trustees, and also to officer Newton of Westboro', who had him in charge. It seems the matter has been contemplated for some time, and young Crehan implicates other boys in the transaction. Combustible materials had been carried from the chair shop in the pockets of Crehan, and placed in the ventilator ready for use. A match was obtained from the pocket of Mr. Greenwood, the overseer in the chair shop, and all things being ready, the fire was kindled in the ventilator on Saturday morning about 5 o'clock. The names of the other boys implicated are suppressed until a full investigation is made by the trustees, into all the circumstances. Young Crehan was lodged in Worcester this P. M., for safe keeping.

ST. LOUIS, 15th.

Leavenworth City voted to-day to loan its credit to the amount of $100,000, for building a railroad to Fort Riley. Sufficient subscriptions have been guaranteed to justify the immediate prosecution of the work.

NEW ORLEANS, 15th.

The steamers Arizona and Indianola arrived here to-day from Brazos, with $800,000 in specie. Brownsville dates are to the 4th. The yellow fever was prevailing as an epidemic.

In Northern Mexico troops were organizing.

WASHINGTON, 15th.

Prof. Alex. Dibitry, translator of the State Department was appointed to-day, by the President, Minister to Costa Rica and Nicaragua, and will leave here at an early day for Central America.

The statement of the London Herald that this government has officially notified Her Majesty that the U. S. have resolved to abandon privateering as a portion of the maritime law agreed upon at the Congress of Paris in 1856, is entirely without foundation.

REMARKABLE OPERATION. Dr. Sherbrooke, of Natchitoches, performed the operation of circumcision last Thursday, in removing a large tumor from the right nasal orifice of the wife of Mr. Artemus Dean. In removing the excrescence the nostril became exposed. A piece of vulcanized caoutchouc, so colored as to resemble flesh, was inserted, and without close observation the artifice would not be noticed.—Natchitoches (La.) Observer.

A Card to the Deaf.

DR. YOUNG tenders his thanks to the large number of the Deaf—individually and collectively—who have suffered his recent visit to the city, and who by the request of many patients, he will visit again, on and will come prepared to treat any and all cases of Nervous Deafness, so frequently the cause of deafness, and much suffering. Dr. Young will guarantee a cure in this affection, by the application of his new method, in from one to four weeks!

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

A COMPOUND REMEDY, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

PREPARED BY

DR. J. C. AYER & CO.,

LOWELL, MASS.

Price, $1 per bottle; Six Bottles for $5.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it has ever been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and for Purifying the Blood.

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Price, 25 cents per box; Five boxes for $1.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of these remedies, but our space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac, in which they are given, with also full descriptions of the above complaints, and the treatment that should be followed for their cure.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S, and take no others. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

Sold by W. L. Alden & Co., B. F. Bradbury, N. S. Harlow, J. S. Ingraham, and Wm. Mason, Bangor; T. P. Batchelder, Kenduskeag; F. B. Warren, East Corinth; J. M. Esper, Stetson—and by all druggists and merchants throughout the country.

Ladies' Gaiter Boots.

A little glove stirs up my heart as tides stir up the ocean;
And snow-white muslin, when it dies, wakes many a curious notion;
All sorts of lady fixings thrill my feelings as they'd better,
But little female gaiter-boots are death, and nothing shorter!
And just to put you on your guard, I'll give you, short and brief,
A small hotel experience, Which filled my heart with grief.
Last summer, at the Bangor House, I stopped a week or more,
And marked two "boot-ies" every morn Before my neighbor's door;
Two boots which seemed to say,
Two boots with patent leather tips—
"An angel trots around in us"—
They stole my heart away.
And often in my nightly dreams
They swept before my face,
A lady, growing out of them,
As flowers grow from a vase.
But, all! one morn I saw a sight
Which struck me like a stone,
Some other name was on the book—
Those boots were not alone!
A great tall pair of other boots
Were standing by their side,
And off they walked that afternoon,
And with them walked—a bride.

Ladies, comment is unnecessary. Those Gaiter Boots came from MILLETT & BANGS, No. 19 West Market Square.

SLATE!

THE Bangor and Piscataquis Slate Company having completed their arrangements for the manufacture of SLAB SLATE, are prepared to receive orders for any dimension which may be required, from a "paper weight" to a "Billiard Table."

The endless variety of uses to which this article may be applied, will readily occur to the artisan, and indeed to every observer of the progress of modern improvement in the arts of life.

Counters for Shops, Shelves, Hearths, Tables for Printers, Black Boards for Schools, are among the many purposes for which this article will be in demand.

The peculiar texture or grain of the stone from the Brownville quarry, being entirely free from those gnarls, or cross grains, which are apt to disfigure almost all other slates, renders the surface of the manufactured article smooth and true; and it is insisted, and probably will not be denied, that it is the best Slate in the known world.

Having recently filled an order for Messrs. Wheeler & Lynde, of the Whig and Courier, they have kindly permitted their Tables to be examined at their office.

The Company can also supply almost any quantity and size of Roofing Slate, and solicit orders in any of the branches of their business. Specimens at their office. Apply to C. B. ABBOT, Lower Steamboat (Coe's) Wharf, Bangor, Maine.

PATENT SOLID

COTTON BELTING!

HAVING received the Agency for the sale of this Belting, the subscriber would call the attention of Mill Owners, Machinists, and others interested in the use of an efficient and cheap Belt to samples which may be seen at his counting-room, Lower Steamboat (Coe's) Wharf.

This Belting is formed by weaving several layers of Duck solid in one body, and like leather it partakes of the strain in all its parts, and gives a gain of power over every other kind in passing the pulley. It is especially adapted for open Belts, and for heavy and main Belts, while its elasticity allows it to be used on very small pulleys, and where quick speed is required. It can be made of any desired length without lap or joint. The cost of this Belting being about one half that of leather, will recommend it to the attention of every customer. Any width, from 1 to 26 inches, furnished, and extra width and thickness made to order.

DR. POWERS'

VEGETABLE BITTERS.

THE Public is here presented with a new Tonic Alterative and Cordial Bitter compounded by Dr. Mowry of Lowell the discoverer and proprietor of Mowry's celebrated Cough Balsam These Bitters are purely vegetable, as is testified by the distinguished chemist to whom they were submitted for analysis. They act both pleasant to the palate and healing to the stomach a greeable as a beverage, and medicinal as a medicine They are fully equal to the richest and most aromatic liquor in flavor and color. Those in want of an appetizer before eating and those afflicted with indigestion, torment, nausea after taking food with sour stomach general debility of the system and other like ailments, will find in these Bitters instant relief. Travellers will find in them a full fo organ illness. They are superior to any bitters in the market. As a protection against counterfeits these Bitters have been copyrighted by the District Court of the United States. The following certificates from an eminent chemist and a distinguished physician of Boston, furnish a sufficient guaranty of the quality of these Bitters—

BOSTON, August 4, 1858.

DR. DANIEL HOWE,

Dear Sir—Having subjected the sample of Vegetable Bitters received from you to the most searching chemical analysis, I am unable to detect the slightest trace of any other than purely vegetable ingredients in them.

I know of no medicinal composition likely to be more beneficial as a tonic, cordial and alterative than your Vegetable Bitters.

Very respectfully yours,

CHARLES T. CARNEY, Chemist,

186 Washington street, Boston

BOSTON, August 4 1858.

DR. DANIEL HOWE,

My Dear Sir,—I have given the sample of Bitters received from you a careful examination, and find it to be composed of only such vegetable ingredients as are highly prized by the profession for their tonic medicinal properties. The formula submitted to me shows the compound to be a well selected combination of valuable medicinal agents.

Yours, respectfully, &c.

CELEBRATED REMEDIES

Thousands who have been laid low by disease will attest to their healing powers By the use of them they have been restored to health and vigor, and their gratitude is unbounded O, could the world be wise—throw aside the poisonous and deleterious medicines they now use, which serve to increase their physical strength, and bring on weaknesses and debility and numerous other troubles—and take the long sought for medicines, which operate upon the whole system like a charm, and which are emphatically, as every one who ever used them will testify—

A sovereign balm for every wound;

A cordial for our fears.

O for once be wise—don't longer delay Delays are dangerous, and while you are taking the pot sedious drugs, the disease may have so far progressed as to make it too late for hope Now is the time to buy and try my medicines, and again to enjoy the blessings of health. Try them—and you will never have cause to repent of it.
